CHRISTMAS PRAYER

The assembly stands for the Prayer.

Pastor      Gracious God, You who are Love itself,
we pause here this morning for a moment,
to remember and reflect.
In this season of gifts and giving, we remember the many gifts which we have been given, gifts which are easily taken for granted.

For the gifts of food and shelter, for family, and friends who have become our families, for the great gifts of life and love itself we thank you.

Out of the gratitude of our hearts and the abundance with which we have received, may we share and shower those around us with these same wonderful gifts.

We thank you for the gift of those who have loved us, and those we have loved. We are especially mindful of those we have lost, who are no longer here.

We trust they are fully dwelling in your Light and Love perpetual and as we gather in this season of light, may we remember the Light you have shown upon our lives. and may we be reflections of Your Light in this life and to all who cross our paths. For Love's Sake, so be it.

Assembly Amen.

AT THE MANGER: MARY

Lector

The story of Mary: St. Luke 1:26-35

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words, and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." And Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore, the child to be born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word."

AT THE MANGER: JOSEPH

Lector                      The Story of Joseph: St. Matthew 1:18-21

Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.”

Lector                      Listen to what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly                Thanks be to God.

AT THE MANGER: THE STAR

Lector

The Story of the Star: St. Matthew 2:1-2, 1-10

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, “Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East and have come to worship him.” Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared; and he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him bring me word, that I too may come and worship him.” When they had heard the king, they went their way; and lo, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest over the place where the child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

AT THE MANGER: ANGELS

Lector                The Story of the Angels: St. Luke 2:8-14

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel of the Lord said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people; to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

THE BIRTH OF CHRIST

Pastor

The story of Jesus' Birth: St. Luke 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from the Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Pastor Listen to what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

Pastor Let us pray.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, king of the universe.

You have enriched our lives with every good and perfect gift; you have commanded us to show your splendor to our children and to praise you with lives of love, justice, and joy. Be with us this day, and point us to this crèche, that it may be a visible sign of your saving grace and love in all our Christmas celebrations; through your Son, Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be all honor and glory, now and forever.

Assembly Amen

THE PREPARATION

Pastor            Glory be to God who flows through all creation,
                      Blessing us with gifts to share.
Assembly        Blessed be God for ever.

CELEBRATION OF COMMUNION

Pastor            The Lord is with you.
Assembly        And also with you.
Pastor            Lift up your hearts.
Assembly        We lift them up to God.
Pastor            Let us give thanks to the Lord our God
Assembly        It is right to offer our thanks and praise.

Pastor            O God, Mystery of winter skies, we look for you in these shorter days for opening our eyes to see your beauty;
                      for parting the wide heavens to send your gentle light;
                      for offering your word to take our mortal flesh.
                      Jesus was promised by those who shared your dream of peace; John the Baptist cleared the way with words of desert fire;
                      Mary and Joseph accepted his coming with tenderness and faith; we know that he draws near again to show us who we really are with honesty and love. Now we take up the song of hope that we might awaken to his coming among us and the world be touched by the footfall of his glory:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Pastor We give thanks for our brother, Jesus Christ;
who, on the night that he was betrayed,
gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom.

Calling them to his table,
he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said:
This is my body, which is given for you.
Do this to remember me.

In the same way after supper,
he took the cup, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, whenever you drink it, to remember me.

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold.

THE OUR FATHER

Pastor            Let us hold in our hearts the hope of Christ as we pray together.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Pastor            We break the bread of life,
And that life is the light of the world.

Assembly        God here among us,
Light in the midst of us,
Bring us to light and life.

ALL ARE INVITED TO SHARE BREAD AND WINE

All are welcome to come and receive the bread and wine. There are gluten free wafers; ask the Pastor or Communion Assistants to provide one to you. A chalice of wine will be offered to you - simply touch the wafer to the wine. If you do not wish to take communion you may come forward for a blessing. If you are unable to come forward simply let an usher know and communion will be brought to you.

The assembly stands as they are able for prayer, blessing, and final carol.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Leader           Most loving God, we are thankful for all we have shared around this table of hope.

Assembly        We are thankful that through faith, hope will overcome doubt, love will overcome fear, and light will overcome darkness. May the blessing of light be on us: light without and light within. Amen.

Food Pantry Collection

Good news! Thanks to your generosity, we have donated so much food to Northeast Community Center's Food Pantry that they have no room to store more! Anything else that we collect this month will go to January's Food Pantry recipient: Calvary Templo.

Calvary Templo has asked for: Peanut butter and jelly (both in plastic jars), canned fruit, pasta, and pasta sauce in plastic jars as well.

Giving Tree Donation Thank You

Thank you to all who bought hats and gloves or mittens and donated $5 for a book to HeadStart students. Because of you, 32 preschools will be a little warmer with new hats and gloves/mittens and have a new book to brighten their day. All items were delivered last week. Students at Holy Infancy and Lincoln's preschools had smiles on their faces because of your generosity. Love abounds!
